The mysterious Dagda, the greatest Pagan God of ancient Scotland and Ireland, protected his people with a magic oak harp. The music ensured that the four seasons passed in their correct order and the sublime sound would embolden Dagda's warriors in battle. One day Dagda played his harp near his foes, sending them firstly into despair, then into frenzied laughter and dance, then finally sending them to sleep, their weapons falling to the ground.

*Загадочный Дагда--могучий языческий бог, которому поклонялись в древней Шотландии и Ирландии, оберегал свой народ с помощью магической арфы сделанной из дуба. Ее волишебные звуки придавали храбрость и силу его воинам в битве.
Но когда Дагда играл на своей арфе врагам, он повергал их сначала в глубокую тоску, затем в неудержимое веселье и буйный танец, а под конец, насылал на них тяжелый сон, так что их оружие падало на землю.*
